

MEMORY LANE CAFÉ

Crossroads Care South East London run a Memory Lane Café in the London Borough of Bexley.

The Café is open on the 1st Saturday of every month between 10.30am – 2.30pm

The Café is a friendly and informal meeting place and offers support to carers, family, friends and the person living with dementia to come together and share any experiences, exchange information and find out about other services that may be available to them.

Come along for a cooked lunch and pudding (£4.50) which includes, tea, coffee etc... and engage in a range of social activities.

Our experienced, trained staff and volunteers are always on hand to provide a listening ear.

Details of the Café are as follows:-
